Annotated Bibliography

Here is where you offer a brief summary of the source you are using. Make sure to include the main points of the source. The purpose of the annotation is to inform the reader of the general information included in the source.

Here is where you offer an evaluation of the source. Does it seem like a reliable and current source? Why? Is the research biased or objective? Are the facts well documented? Who is the author? Is he/she qualified in this subject? Is this source scholarly, popular, some of both? You will not need to answer all of these questions; they are offered as guidelines to help you understand what I will be looking for in your summaries.

Your next citation should start here.
